References and links

In the case of direct or indirect references to external Internet pages ("links") lying outside the media owner's area of responsibility, a liability obligation would only come into effect if the media owner was aware of the content and if it were technically possible and feasible for him to prevent the use in the event of illegal content.

The media owner hereby expressly declares that at the time the links were created, no illegal content was discernible on the linked pages. The media owner has no influence whatsoever over the current and future design, content, or authorship of the linked pages. Therefore, he hereby expressly dissociates himself from all contents of all linked pages that were changed after the link was created. This statement applies to all links and references created on our own Internet site as well as to external entries in guest books, discussion forums, and mailing lists created by the media owner. For illegal, incorrect, or incomplete contents, and in particular for damages arising from the use or non-use of such information, the referred to provider of the page is solely liable, not the party who merely refers to the respective publication via links.
